Lord
Speaks and It Stands

Song 3 The Lord Speaks and It Stands

Psalm 33 (By the word of the Lord the heavens were made; the Lord brings the counsel of the nations to nothing; the earth is full of the steadfast love of the Lord)

The Lord speaks and it stands, He commands and it is
The earth fears the Lord, in awe it submits
All earth's dwellers tremble, in reverence they bow
The Lord speaks and it stands, He commands and it is
The earth fears the Lord, in awe it submits
All earth's dwellers tremble, in reverence they bow

Alleluia, Alleluia, the Lord's voice resounds
Alleluia, Alleluia, the earth shakes around

By the Lord's words the heavens were made so vast
By the breath of His mouth, the starry host amassed
He gathers the seas as heaps, in His mighty hand
The deep waters as treasure, at His command

Alleluia, Alleluia, the Lord's voice resounds
Alleluia, Alleluia, the earth shakes around

The Lord speaks and it stands, He commands and it is
The earth fears the Lord, in awe it submits
All earth's dwellers tremble, in reverence they bow

Alleluia, Alleluia, the Lord's voice resounds
Alleluia, Alleluia, the earth shakes around

The Lord looks from heaven upon the sons of men
He fashions their hearts, their ways to comprehend
The Lord's counsel stands forever, from eternity
The thoughts of His heart endure for all progeny

Alleluia, Alleluia, the Lord's voice resounds
Alleluia, Alleluia, the earth shakes around

The Lord speaks and it stands, He commands and it is
The earth fears the Lord, in awe it submits
All earth's dwellers tremble, in reverence they bow

Alleluia, Alleluia, the Lord's voice resounds
Alleluia, Alleluia, the earth shakes around

The Lord loves righteousness and justice on the land
His lovingkindness fills the earth, by His command
The Lord's eyes are on those who watch in fear
In famine He preserves their life, draws near

Alleluia, Alleluia, the Lord's voice resounds
Alleluia, Alleluia, the earth shakes around

The Lord speaks and it stands, He commands and it is
The earth fears the Lord, in awe it submits
All earth's dwellers tremble, in reverence they bow

Alleluia, Alleluia, the Lord's voice resounds
Alleluia, Alleluia, the earth shakes around

O peoples who make the Lord your God, His name proclaim
O men who know the Lord, His wonders to acclaim
Sing to the Lord a new song, with joy let it ring
With harp and lyre, let melodies spring

Alleluia, Alleluia, the Lord's voice resounds
Alleluia, Alleluia, the earth shakes around

The Lord speaks and it stands, He commands and it is
The earth fears the Lord, in awe it submits
All earth's dwellers tremble, in reverence they bow

Alleluia, Alleluia, the Lord's voice resounds
Alleluia, Alleluia, the earth shakes around
