

Song 6 Under Your Wings

Psalm 36 (the wicked have no fear of God; Your steadfast love extends to the heavens; under the shadow of Your wings they take refuge); Psalm 91:4 ("He will cover you with his pinions, and under his wings you will find refuge"); Psalm 57:1 ("Be merciful to me, O God... in the shadow of your wings I will take refuge")

Under Your wings' shadow, I come to dwell in peace
O God, by Your mercy, You keep me with sweet release

Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your mercy's shade so near
Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your love will guard and steer

Do you have no fear of God, O soul so bold?
Do you speak in treachery, with words of cold?
Is your iniquity grown great, your heart astray?
Do you utter deceit, turning from the way?

Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your mercy's shade so near
Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your love will guard and steer

Under Your wings' shadow, I come to dwell in peace
O God, by Your mercy, You keep me with sweet release

Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your mercy's shade so near
Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your love will guard and steer

On your bed you plot iniquity's dark art
You stand in ways that are not good, far from the heart

Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your mercy's shade so near
Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your love will guard and steer

Under Your wings' shadow, I come to dwell in peace
O God, by Your mercy, You keep me with sweet release

Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your mercy's shade so near
Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your love will guard and steer

Are your words of mouth full of deceit and guile?
Do you not walk in wisdom, pure and without guile?
Have you forsaken good, your hands turned aside?
Do you not hate evil, letting falsehood abide?

Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your mercy's shade so near

Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your love will guard and steer

Under Your wings' shadow, I come to dwell in peace
O God, by Your mercy, You keep me with sweet release

Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your mercy's shade so near
Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your love will guard and steer

On your bed you plot iniquity's dark art
You stand in ways that are not good, far from the heart

Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your mercy's shade so near
Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your love will guard and steer

Under Your wings' shadow, I come to dwell in peace
O God, by Your mercy, You keep me with sweet release

Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your mercy's shade so near
Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your love will guard and steer

The Lord's mercy reaches to the heavens high
His faithfulness touches the clouds in the sky
The Lord's righteousness is like the mighty mountains tall
His judgments are a great deep, embracing all

Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your mercy's shade so near
Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your love will guard and steer

Under Your wings' shadow, I come to dwell in peace
O God, by Your mercy, You keep me with sweet release

Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your mercy's shade so near
Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your love will guard and steer

The Lord's temple is filled with fullness divine
The river of His pleasures quenches thirst's design
In Him is the fountain of life, pure and true
By His light we see light, forever new

Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your mercy's shade so near
Holy is the Lord, Holy is the Lord, Your love will guard and steer

Under Your wings' shadow, I come to dwell in peace
O God, by Your mercy, You keep me with sweet release
